Subject: objection to Microsoft settlement

Dear Sir:

I'm a software professional with over 20 years experience in the desktop market.

I'm writing to object to the proposed settlement in which MS would be allowed to distribute their software to schools as a penalty for their monopolistic practices. This is a cheap "do it for the kids" tactic that will only benefit Microsoft. The fact that Microsoft likes the settlement should be reason enough to understand that it's not in the public's best interest.

Sincerely,

Eric Slosser
